WALL STREET, Wednesday, July 14 .- The defeat of the Free-Cotnage bill in the House was reflected to-day in a very steady tone in the markets for securities.
The fact that London did not come in as a free buyer occasioned disappointment but when it was remembered that the foreigners did tically nothing in the way of buying or selling after the Senate passed the bill this feeling were off. According to leading bankers there is good reason to believe that the operations for European account from this time on will be for the long instead of the short account. All the industrials were firm, but American Sugar was the special card and rose 15s, to 98%. The fluctuations generally confined within narrow limits, and the sales up to noon were only 109,000 shares.

Prominent speculators here express greater confidence in the future and are apparently accumulating stocks. The only matter that coubles them now is the situation at Homestead and a satisfactory outcome of affairs there is awaited with uncommon interest. The Iron Mountain road gives notice that it will extend its $4,000,000 1st mortgage bonds, maturing Aug. 1, 1862, at the rate of 5 per cent, until May 1, 1867,

It was again asserted that Drexel, Morgan & Co. will take hold of the Company and put it in good financial condition. Nothing positive, however, it knows a sout the matter.
